FROM THE MINISTER

TIME – WHERE HAS IT GONE ?

*“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.”
Ecclesiastes 3: 1*

Time has a funny way of running away on us. Before we know it, another year has passed, another birthday is approaching, or another Christmas is looming. Where does the time go?

As I write, I’m sharply aware that we will soon be in the last quarter of 2024. The Season of Advent, often seen as the run-up to Christmas, will begin on the first Sunday of December.

Between 4 and 6pm on that first Sunday of Advent, we will be staging our Annual Carols on The Green on the Havelock North Village Green. Performers including The Bay Cities’ Symphonic Band, Men In Black Jazz Band, Opera singer Diane Abraham, and groups from Iona College and Hukarere College, who all will offer us a relaxing afternoon of music. Santa will pay a visit with some gifts for the children.

December will be a busy month with Christmas ‘break up’ functions for schools, clubs and other organisations. We, at St Columba’s, will be busy with our end-of-year Mini Market (7th Dec) and the Christmas services.

Looking back over the year, I think we can be satisfied with what the Parish has achieved. I believe we have maintained a mission focus: We have started some new groups which meet a need in the community: The Balance & Exercise Group; The Knit and Natter Group; A Spirituality Group; A Singing Group; A Parish Focus Group which has held activities for younger families like the movie night; The Blessing of Pets Service and soon, a Craft activity with Arohanui Church. We offer some financial support to other organisations in our community. Our iconic Columba Bookshop continues to engage with the community. We support Trudi and Dick Robinson in their hands-on support of Cyclone Victims.

I, and your Elders continue to support people in need, once we hear about them. I also conduct regular services at Mary Doyle and Duart Hospital. I hope to be part of an ecumenical team that can offer services to the new James Wattie Village. I also do the odd Chapel service at Iona College in support of their chaplain.

Many of you reading this newsletter, are in retirement villages, rest homes, or house bound. We are still thinking of you. If you want a visit from me, or an Elder, we will do our best to oblige. We have at least 18 parishioners in our parish over the age of 90. You are our parish 'taonga' (Maori for 'treasure').

I want to thank everyone in our parish for your support of the parish during the year. It's been a pleasure being your minister. The sad part of any ministry is watching much-loved parishioners pass away, or move away, reminding us that there is a time for everything under the heavens. May God be with our families who have lost loved ones during the year.

As we approach the last quarter of 2024, I pray that we will fulfil our mission of 'Making Jesus Christ known' in our Church and in our wider community. And that we do this, not by Bible bashing, but by being a loving and welcoming church, living in the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Every Blessing

Wayne

FROM THE ELDERS

Pastoral Care: There is an increasing need for more pastoral carers within the parish. Elders are encouraged to promote and initiatives to ensure all community members receive the care and attention they need.

Acknowledgement of Rev. Wayne: Rev. Wayne Toleafoa was warmly thanked for his dedicated service and contributions to both the parish and the broader community.

SCHNEG Mission Statement: The SCHNEG group is finalizing a mission statement. Karen Armstrong will be the guest speaker at their next meeting, noted for her engaging and insightful presentations.

Focus Group Activity: The next planned event is an intergenerational pet and animal blessing service, scheduled for Sunday, 29 September.

Elders' Meeting Time: It was agreed to change the time of future elders meetings to 7:00 pm, effective from October 2024.

Communion at Mary Doyle: Anne Keown continues to serve communion to Eunice Hope after the passing of Kath Craig.

Singing for Peace Service: A "Singing for Peace" service is proposed for 6 November to commemorate the Invasion of Parihaka. Rev. Wayne and Anne Keown will organize the event, inviting various singing groups to participate.

Elders Secretary

FROM THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

Pastoral Concerns: Rev. Wayne expressed concerns for several parishioners, while the Board expressed regret at the passing of Peter Kidd, a long-serving and valuable member.

Insurance and Property: It was unanimously decided to reinstate full replacement cover for the church property. The committee will continue monitoring appropriate insurance coverage based on cost and risk. The church received an account of $19,864 for the property insurance.

Financial Matters:

- Account payments for July 2024, totalling $12,421, and August 2024, totalling $15,451, were approved.
- David McDonald presented a paper to assist with investment options for the Wellington funds. The parish must distinguish between capital funds (from property sales) and parish funds (which can be used for operational expenses). St Columba's capital funds are currently held in the Presbyterian Investment Fund (PIF), which can only be used for property-related services.
- A subcommittee is considering investment options.

Stott Legacy Investment: It was resolved to invest $65,000 for six months at a 5.6% interest rate with Westpac.

Charity Outreach: The Bookshop AGM resolved to donate 10% of funds, totalling $3,690, to St Columba's Gabrielle Relief Fund. However, concerns were raised about the transparency of fund management, particularly regarding receipts and expenditure.

BLOKES BREAKFAST

The last two months we have had fascinating speakers. Ian Hill, retired diplomat and former Ambassador to Russia, followed by Daniel Taylor, an overseas New Zealand Trade official. The two of them had shared a meal in Moscow.

We have two more meetings for the year, on Saturday 19 October and 16 November. Come and join us, you will enjoy it.

Craig Kilgour

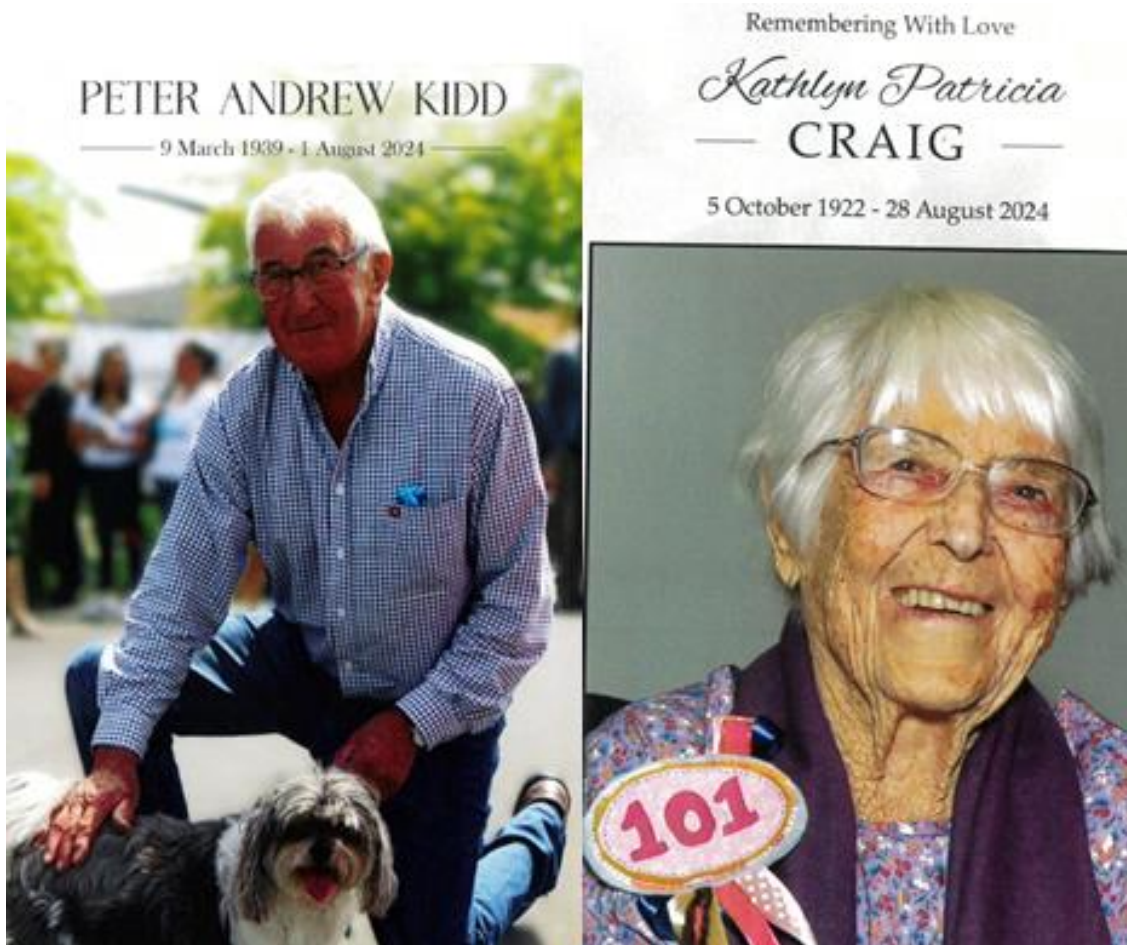

INDOOR BOWLS

We are almost at the end of another indoor bowling season. There is a membership of 13 and our average attendance is 10 each night.

The end of year function will be lunch at Thai Silk in early November which was a popular decision agreed by all.

IN MEMORIAM

CHANGE OF MEETING TIME

At their meeting on 3 September, elders agreed that the meeting time of elders meetings change to 7.00pm on the first Tuesday of the month, effective from October 2024.

KNIT N NATTER

It has been a very productive winter for this group of women. Many blankets, singlets and other beautiful creations have been handed over to 'Pregnancy Help' and gratefully received.

The group has decided not to stop at the end of winter as we did last year but to continue throughout the year.

The company is wonderful, and everyone is welcome. If you have any double knit pure wool surplus to requirements, we will happily take it off your hands.

You don't have to be a knitter to join – you might just enjoy a natter and a coffee. Every Wednesday (except the 2nd Wed of the month), in the Millar Room from 10.00am to 12.00.

Come and try it out. You'd be most welcome.

Dianne Taylor

MINI MARKET

It's that time of year again—Mini Market season is in full swing! We're excited to report that September was a fantastic start, raising nearly $2,000, close to a record!

However, with several retirements and the recent passing of Peter Kidd, who will be deeply missed, we need additional support to keep things running smoothly. Here's how you can help:

Quality white elephant items – contact Kevin Rose

Jewellery donations – contact Janice Hopkinson

Produce supply – contact Arthur Peake

Baking and jam-making ingredients – see Elma Pienaar

Potted plants and knitting items are also welcome!

We'd love to have you join us on market day to help sell, or if you're just looking for a unique gift or some fresh produce, come along! Even if you just want to chat, Dorothy Thawley and her friendly team will be serving coffee and creating a warm atmosphere.

Important Changes for This Year:

Setup will now begin at 7:30 am.

There will be only one market in December on 7 December.

The annual dinner is postponed until May 2025.

Kevin Rose and Janice Hopkinson are taking over from Peter and Fiona Kidd.

Despite the changes, September's market went smoothly, and the team has been performing exceptionally well. Remember, your contributions help keep our church viable, with 10% of the proceeds donated to charity.

Thank you all for your ongoing support and hard work—it truly makes a difference!

The committee (Phil Carter, Kevin Rose & John Heesterman)

PRAYER GROUP

Following the farewell service for our dear long-time leader, Kath Craig, the Prayer Group met on 4 September at Duart Rest Home with Rev Wayne present to give Communion and participate with the meeting. A former long-time participant, Brenda Armstrong, was able to join us.

Our afternoon was a 'Celebration of Life', acknowledging the loss of our leader, and Millicent's 100th birthday the following week. As we embraced these two events, a most enjoyable small afternoon tea was shared.

Millicent, on moving from Dannevirke to Havelock North many years ago, joining St Columba's and becoming friends with Kath was instrumental in joining forces with Kath to form the St Columba's Prayer Group with Kath as leader. Millicent is most eager for our meetings to be held in her room at Duart – Level 2, Room 31.

Meetings are scheduled for Wednesday 2 October and 6 November at 2.00pm. Prayer requests can be made to Rev Wayne or Elma in the parish office.

*Yours in Christ
Mary Sittauer*

BIBLE STUDY

The value of Bible Study Groups

It seems that I have only just completed a report for the AGM, and I am required to do another for our newsletter. What on earth should I write about? Then it struck me, so dear friends, read on...

Have you ever felt alone in your faith journey, or are you may be new to our church? A Bible study group can offer a space where you can connect with others, grow spiritually and discover the transformative power of Scripture together.

Benefits of Bible Study Groups:

- Community and Support: Being a part of a Bible Study Group fosters a sense of belonging and provides a supportive network you can share your experiences and pray for one another on your spiritual path.
- Deeper Understanding of Scripture: Studying the Bible together allows you to explore its rich meaning and context. Through discussion and reflection, you can gain a deeper understanding of God's word and its application to your life.
- Spiritual Growth: Engaging in Bible Study can help you grow spiritually in many ways. You may develop a deeper love for God, a stronger faith and a deeper understanding of your identity as a follower of Christ.
- Accountability and Encouragement: A Bible study group can provide accountability and encouragement as you strive to live your faith. Knowing that others are supporting you can help you stay motivated and focused on your spiritual goals.

Getting Involved: If you're interested in joining our Bible Study Group, you only need to note that we meet on the second Monday afternoon of each month at 2pm in the Millar Room and come along and check us out.

At the risk of 'sticking my neck out' I was shocked that for a few years there was no Bible Study Group that met at St Columba's and so I attended another elsewhere. Then because someone had to step up, I took the plunge. That was in 2013. To begin with, we met at night as I was the leader and still working. We had no materials, and I spent hours preparing material for our study. We met fortnightly. Now we meet only once a month and take turns to lead the sessions. It's much better.

My challenge to you is this: If you are not in a Bible Study Group or the Faith and Reason Group, why not join one or the other? What about the men who threatened to join our group when we first started up? How about starting up a brand-new Bible Study Group? Wouldn't that be something?

A Graceful Farewell

As I conclude this report, I am mindful of the concept of grace. Which is God's gift even when we do not deserve it. May grace continue to fill your life, guiding your footsteps, comforting your heart, and reminding you of God's unwavering love.

Judith Bartlett

WOMEN'S COFFEE CLUB

On the second Wednesday of each month a group of between 20 and 30 women meet in the foyer for fellowship, food, fun and to listen to an interesting speaker. We would love to grow these numbers, so come along and join us.

We start at 10.00am and a gold coin donation is appreciated. Next meetings are on 9 October and 13 November. Also, an early reminder of our special Christmas Service on 11 December. See you there.

OUR FUNERAL POLICY

(1) As a general rule, our parish minister, the Rev Wayne Toleafoa, will officiate at funerals held in our church. There may be occasional exceptions where the family request that a different minister officiate. In such cases a request must be made to the Rev Toleafoa who has the discretion whether to grant the request. It is emphasised that these would be only occasional instances and that the normal rule is that the proper person to officiate at a service in the church is the parish minister. Normally, it would not be considered appropriate that the church be used as a venue for funerals conducted by lay celebrants.

(2) All enquiries relating to the availability of the church for funerals need to be addressed to the church office (phone 877 8096) office hours 9:00 – 1:00, Monday – Friday, or the Office Administrator, Elma Pienaar, after hours (phone 02102773099).

(3) As a general rule, the church organ will be played at funerals by our charge organist, Jean Jarvis, or one of our other organists. There may be occasional exceptions where the family request a different organist. In such cases a request must be made to the parish minister, who has the discretion whether to grant the request, and who will decide after conferring with our charge organist. It is emphasised that these would be only occasional instances.

(4) The following charges apply for the use of the church for funerals as from 14 September 2022:

FEE FOR THE USE OF THE CHURCH

a) Where the deceased is a communicant or an associate member of the parish

No charge

b) Where the deceased is neither a communicant nor an associate member of the parish and the funeral is conducted by the parish minister or by an outside minister with the agreement of the parish minister - $400.00 + GST

c) Where the funeral is conducted by a lay celebrant - $700.00 + GST

FEE FOR THE MINISTER

- a) Where the deceased is a communicant or an associate member of the parish and the funeral is conducted by the parish minister, or the minister's nominee should the minister be unavailable. No charge
- b) Where the deceased is a communicant or an associate member of the parish and the funeral is conducted, by request of the family, by an outside minister with the agreement of the parish minister, any fee payable to that minister shall not be the responsibility of the parish.
- c) Where the deceased is neither a communicant nor an associate member of the parish and the funeral is conducted or led by the parish minister - $400.00 + GST
- d) Where the deceased is neither a communicant nor an associate member of the parish and an outside minister either conducts or participates in the funeral, any fee payable to that minister shall not be the responsibility of the parish.
- e) In any case, where the parish minister leads or participates in a funeral service and an outside minister also takes part, any fee payable to the outside minister shall not be the responsibility of the parish.

FEE FOR THE ORGANIST $100.00 + GST

FEE FOR THE SOUND OPERATOR $50.00 + GST

FEE FOR THE CLEANER $70.00 + GST

NOURISHED FOR NIL

A very big thank you to those in the congregation who continue to provide food items for Nourished for Nill. The food that you provide is added to other food that is collected and put into food bank boxes. These boxes are given to folk who have been referred by various agencies. In August 196 parcels were collected from the Havelock branch.

This food assists families to have meals that they might usually find hard to provide. Please continue to give generously. You are providing a valuable contribution to your community.

The basket sits in the foyer waiting to be filled. If food is not for you, then money can be placed in the appropriate box in the basket.

Dianne and John Taylor

CYCLONE RELIEF FUND

I want to express my heartfelt thanks to everyone for your continued support, which has enabled me to help those still affected by Cyclone Gabrielle. The journey is ongoing, and many families continue to need assistance as they work to rebuild their lives.

One family lost two houses in the floodwaters at Rissington, where three homes once stood. Despite being under-insured, they are determined to return and rebuild on their land. I've been able to provide windows, doors, insulation, and particle board. After more than 18 months without power, they've finally had electricity restored. In total, we've delivered five truck and trailer loads of supplies to help them in their rebuilding efforts.

In addition to this, I've been fortunate to assist two more families by painting the interiors of their homes—free of charge, as we are house painters by trade.

Another ongoing project involves four families whose homes were left incomplete by their builders. In some cases, bedrooms still had no flooring, lining, or Gib on the walls. Thankfully, I've been able to secure donations of Gib and ply through a generous trust. Although they couldn't assist with fuel costs, the materials have made a huge difference to these families, helping them progress towards completing their homes.

Right now, I'm focusing on organizing a golf day for about 20 fathers and teenage sons as part of a mental health initiative. With the support of another trust, the event will take place at No5 Café & Lader, where participants will enjoy a round of golf followed by refreshments and a chance to gather in a conference room for conversation and support. This came in response to requests from several wives who were concerned for the well-being of their husbands and sons.

Additionally, I'm still coordinating the collection and delivery of goods to families coming out of motels or waiting to return to their homes, which are still being rebuilt. Many of these families had no insurance, so I will soon be seeking donations of furniture, washing machines, lounge suites, and other essential household items to help them get back on their feet.

Your continued support has been invaluable to these families, making a profound difference in their recovery. I sincerely thank you for your generous donations of household goods, the use of your trailer, and contributions towards petrol for my trusty vehicle. Your kindness enables me to keep this vital work going.

8AM COMMUNION

A small group meet on the second Sunday of each month for a short, informal communion service. Usually, we go upstairs to the Upper Room and gather around the communion table. If anyone has limited mobility, we sit around one of the tables in the foyer. Our next two services will be on 13 October and 10 November. Everyone is welcome!

MAINLY BALANCE

Our exercise group is thriving, with regular attendees sharing improvements in both strength and confidence. We invite everyone to come along for an energizing workout and a chance to connect with others every Tuesday at 1:00pm. The session fee is just $5.00.

Feel free to bring friends, even those outside the church community! For more details, you can visit our trainer Lance Marsh's website: <http://www.fabnfunctional.co.nz>. Come see the benefits of staying active and being part of a supportive group!

HAPPY 100TH DEAR MILLICENT!

On 11 September, Millicent Wiggins celebrated her remarkable 100th birthday surrounded by family and friends. The milestone was marked by a warm gathering, and on 14 September, a special reception was held at St Columba's where Millicent spent cherished moments with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. It was a privilege for her extended whānau to celebrate this incredible occasion with her. Millicent continues to be a true blessing to her family, and we give thanks for her life and the joy she brings to all around her.

BOOK SHOP

The Bookshop experienced a relatively quiet period during the winter months, consistent with seasonal trends. Spring is certainly around the corner, judging from the numerous blossoms and bulbs flowering everywhere. As the weather warms, we anticipate a corresponding increase in foot traffic and sales.

Inventory Management has been steady with our surplus going to the Hawke's Bay Regional Prison, recycling and Cyclone Victims. We have a regular sales and giveaway table outside the front of the shop. These come from books which have been on the shelves for over a certain period. We have streamlined the donation and handling process over the last few months.

Volunteer retention is steady, and we are grateful for the various teams who manage the different shifts. We have lost one and taken on another this year, but we would be happy to hear of any new prospects. The Friday Gentlemen have kindly agreed to extend themselves to cover the Tuesday afternoon shifts. Thank you.

With the onset of spring, we are hoping to brighten up the wagons outside the front of the shop and this will include flower baskets which certain volunteers has offered to undertake.

Keep up your visits as there is such a wonderful feast of books arriving daily. Bring in your friends and family too.

By implementing the above strategies and leveraging community engagement, we can contribute to the church's mission and provide a valuable outreach to our community. As ever we thank our busy and wonderful volunteers who keep up the momentum and the outreach.

Judith Bartlett
Bookshop Manager

TABLE TENNIS

The 27th of October is the last day we can play table tennis at St Mathews, Linden Road, before the hall is demolished on 1 November.

We are very grateful to have been able to play there after being given notice by the National Service Club, back in March. The club is renovating and changing systems so we don't know if or when we might be able to return there.

The regular members have been very loyal, and we have also added a couple of new members in the last few months.

We held our annual mid-winter lunch in July at Serendipity. 21 people attended. We hope to have found a suitable playing venue by the time the next Newsletter goes to print!!!

90+ AFTERNOON TEA

The elders are delighted to extend a special invitation to all parishioners who have reached the remarkable age of 90 and above to join us for afternoon tea on Sunday, 3

November at 2:00 pm in the church foyer. Guests are welcome to bring along a spouse, carer, friend, or family member to make the occasion even more enjoyable.

If any of our elderly members require transportation, please inform Elma in the church office, and arrangements will be made. You can reach the office at 877 8096 during office hours (Monday to Friday, 9:00 am to 1:00 pm) or leave a message on the answerphone.

We eagerly look forward to spending time with this distinguished group and sharing in their wisdom and stories.
